A few years ago, our founders arrived Australia. Very much inspired by the local pastries, one of them, an amateur pastry chef, decided to recreate some of the local delicacies with an Asian twist. The adaptation of the Watermelon Strawberry Cake turned out to be a big success.

When the first Watermelon Strawberry Cake was baked, little did the two founders of LIFETASTIC know where this delicate piece of pastry would lead them to.

Every gravel that constructed LIFETASTIC today is evidence of their hard work in making a dream come true, or rather, to prove an ambitious idea in their heads.

Today, not only is Watermelon Strawberry Cake the reason for a queue outside the store, the diversity of their menu, the appearance, the aromas and the tastes of their food also attract admirers from all around the city.
